Fred Cain Another Hat?

Fred F. Cain, of Wilmington, wears the same brown Homburg most of the time, but he is a man of many hats.

The principal ones are those of a legislator, bank president and automobile agency owner. He also has, for instance, a hat as the winner of the Saturday Evening Post's Quality Dealer award, made while that magazine was still a mainstay in American homes.

Cain is now in the running for a similar award from Time Magazine. He has been chosen to be the Massachusetts entry for the Time Magazine Quality Dealer award, to be given in Miami, Fla. on January 21, 1970.

Time Magazine has announced that it will carry on the policy of the former Saturday Evening Post in making the awards to outstanding auto dealers. The program is to be in charge of George McClellan of Detroit, Time's divisional sales manager for that area.

The award is to be known as the 'Time Magazine Quality Dealer Award'.

And possibly Wilmington's representative - bank president - auto dealer - etc., may be the first to wear this new hat. Who knows?

HORRIBLES PARADE FRIDAY EVE

Over 300 kids, aged three to seventy, are to take part in the First Annual Horribles Parade of Wilmington, Friday evening.

Wilmington businesses have contributed a sum of money to be used in acquiring prizes. Prizes will be awarded to:

The Most Original costume, the Prettiest, the Best Family Group, the Best Two-Some, the Scariest, and the Most Horrible.

The Committee in Charge has not yet finished its list of costumes, and may award other prizes as well, for reasons that may appear during the parade. Contestants are thus being challenged to think of reasons.

Church Street is to be cordoned off for the parade, which will start at the Wilmington Police Station at 6:30 pm. It will end at the Tennis Courts, next to the Roman House.

Chief of Police Paul J. Lynch is to be the Parade Marshall. He will appear in his most horrible uniform - that of Chief of Police.

Judging of costumes will take place at the Tennis Courts. Five prominent citizens have agreed to be the judges.

Cider and doughnuts, and hot coffee, are to be served after the judging, and it is planned to have a 'combo' (orchestra) to provide dance music until 9 pm., after the judging.

There is to be no charge other than costume costs, which of course are up to the individuals participating. Refreshments are to be served only to those who are in costume.

50th Anniversary Mass

CARDINAL CUSHING TO PRESIDE

His Eminence, Richard Cardinal Cushing is to preside at a special con-celebrated Mass, at St. Thomas Church, at 5 pm Saturday, at which it is expected 12 priests will celebrate the Mass together.

The service is to be the high point of the current 50 Year Jubilee of St. Thomas.

Mass is to be con-celebrated by the Priests of St. Thomas, plus former priests of St. Thomas, and special guests, priests from churches in neighboring communities.

There is to be a dinner afterwards, for the celebrants.

The Rt. Rev. Joseph Maguire, secretary to His Eminence, will accompany the Cardinal.

Monsignor Bernard McNulty, a former parish priest of St. Thomas, now of St. Gregory's parish in Dorchester, will lead the list of former priests who will participate in the Mass. Also expected is Fr. Paul Berube, now stationed in Dorchester. Priests from the parishes in Woburn and Reading are also expected to participate.

The Cardinal is to deliver a short sermon, after the Mass. It is expected that the entire service will take about one hour.

Four Viewpoints

In the past week three men who should know something of the controversial Chapter 774 of the Acts of 1969 have given of their thoughts on the subject.

The law, as readers of this paper will recall, is the one that has been the subject of an informal debate between this column and State Senator Ronald C. MacKenzie of Burlington. It is designed to promote the construction of low and moderate income housing in the suburban and country towns near Boston. Senator MacKenzie voted for it, with an amendment that increased the State Board of Appeals membership from three to five. The Town Crier has stated that the law is an 'Invitation to Disaster'.

Last week, at a meeting of Region 5A Planning Boards, in Danvers, Bob McKay, Executive Director of the Citizen's Housing and Planning Association of Boston characterized the need of housing as 'critical' and said that his association had supported the bill, knowing full well of its inadequacies, and that there could be a serious impact on some of the cities and towns.

Wilmington's Attorney Joseph Courtney, who is one of the directors of McKay's organization, also admitted the need of housing, but said that the bill was poorly drawn and a 'horror'. He likened it to the work of four blind men who set out to make a horse, and ended up with a camel. Courtney's name for the bill was the 'Massachusetts Lawyers' Relief Act of 1969'.

Senator MacKenzie, speaking the next night in Wilmington to the Wilmington Town Republican Committee and friends, said that the philosophical viewpoint had to be taken. He was adopting the same philosophy as the late President Eisenhower - 'In all things that deal with people, and with human needs, be liberal; in all things that deal with government be conservative'.

The Town Crier's review of the law, he said, had been thorough and had explored every chapter and verse. But the Town Crier, according to Senator MacKenzie, was 'Looking Through the Glass, Darkly'.

land that is zoned residential, and the pledged word of Mr Barbo on more than one occasion, to this effect. The discussions have even been held in the Board of Selectmen's meetings - and more than once.

Leo Barbo possibly will stop all that conversation as the result of a meeting with the Planning Board on Tuesday night.

He is going to give that lot of land to the Town of Wilmington, perhaps to the Conservation Commission, perhaps to some other function of the town. That, he hopes will still the speculative tongues.

The decision was made during a long two hour session with the Planning Board Tuesday night.

Mr Barbo, and two engineers were at the board meeting from 9:30 pm to 11:30 pm discussing drainage, and utilities for the industrial area of 108 Acres.

New drainage plans are to be made, in accordance with the decisions, and three 'rights of way' which had been retained, over the various house lots, are to be abandoned to their owners. Plans showing this are to be drawn, and filed with the Land Court of Massachusetts.

There will be only one 'easement' from Park Street to the Industrial Park, and that through the present vacant lot. That easement will be for utilities only, with the reservation that the Fire Department or the Police Department of the Town of Wilmington may go through, in case of emergency.

Senator MacKenzie Office Hours

State Senator Ronald C. MacKenzie has announced that his office, at 69A Pleasant Street, in Woburn, will be open from 10 am to 2 pm on Nov. 8, 22, and on Dec. 6th.

The deadline for filing legislation for the next session of the State Legislature is the first Wednesday in December. With this in mind the Senator has modified his schedule to give residents of the district as much time as possible to prepare any legislation they would wish him to file. The people are invited to stop in on the Saturdays to confer with him, and it would be helpful if the bill were to be in writing.

No appointment is necessary for the Saturday office hours. If these hours are inconvenient for anyone the Senator would be happy to make an appointment for another time.

Bobby Orr Sports Nite

Next Tuesday

A Bobby Orr Sports Nite is to be presented next Tuesday, in the High School auditorium at 7:30, for the benefit of the Landers Fund.

Among those to participate will be Tim Horgan, sports columnist of the Herald Traveler, Ed Sandford, former Bruins Captain; Buddy Leroux, former trainer for the Bruins, and now for the Red Sox, and other members of the Bruins.

Sticks, pictures and tickets are to be offered. The St. Thomas CYO will conduct the nite.

Barbo to give land to Town

There is one lot of land on Park Street which has no home on it. It is being reserved for 'utilities' to the Wilmington Industrial Park of Leo Barbo and Anthony J. Tambone, and through it runs the small brook which eventually becomes a part of Gowling Brook, and flows to the Ipswich River.

During the past year there has been a lot of talk about this small lot - just big enough for one house. Speculative people have dreamed of it becoming a 'back door' to the industrial development - this in spite of the fact that commercial vehicles cannot by law go through

Selectmen's Meeting

New taxi rates were proposed to the Board of Selectmen Monday night.

Taxi Cab owner Tony Antonowich told the Selectmen that he could not operate his business at the present rates. Antonowich suggested that the rates be $1 for the first mile, and 50 cents for the second mile, or a proportionate amount by tenths of a mile.

With him was his attorney, Paul Garfinkel of Cambridge. Mr Garfinkel is an attorney for Boston taxi cab companies.

Antonowich presented the taxi rates, as printed on cards, in Billerica and Tewksbury. These seemed to concur with the opinion he had offered. Joe Balestrieri of Joe's Cab, and William McKinnon of Town Taxi, also present, concurred with Antonowich.

Anton observed that he had nine licenses, and that he ought to have something to say about rates. This stirred up the board. Mrs Drew began to ask questions, after observing that only five cabs were to belong to any one company, and the TM straightened out the situation by explaining that there were two cab companies involved, one owned by Anton and one owned by his mother and sister, Mrs Carol McKinnon.

Anton argued that to be more fair, meters should be installed, but, he said, other taxi companies in Wilmington did not want this.

Joe Balestrieri told the board that there should be a minimum rate, and then so much a mile thereafter. Selectman McDonald asked that he put his recommendations in writing.

Selectman Miceli said that the taxis had to take into account the people's ability to pay, and Selectman Banda asked how the cabs charged when more than one passenger was in a cab. Anton told Banda that three ride for the price of one, but there is an extra 25¢ charge for over three.

Boyle then took up the question of unrelated people - how did the taxis apportion rates, when three persons rode home from the railroad depot, to different homes?

This was different, Anton told the board. Each pays his own fare.. Mr. Garfinkel told the board that this is what the State Police make the taxis at East Boston airport do, when there is an overload of passengers.

The Selectmen voted to take new taxi rates under advisement, to be decided later.

Banda then took up the question of zoning violations, on Burt Road, with the parking of taxis and equipment. It was a question that had been discussed before with Anton.

Anton said that he had to park cars there because of the vandalism taking place in business zones. All taxi drivers take their cars home, he told the Selectmen. He recited instances of vandalism, flat tires, and radio thefts, which did not occur when a taxi was taken home at night. An arrangement made with the Chief of Police, in which taxis could be left at the police station overnight did not work out, Anton said, because there was no place to leave the drivers' cars when they drove down in the morning.

Banda made the point for a second time. The taxis were not to be left at private homes, overnight. There had been complaints about this on Burt Road, and the Board of Selectmen had no alternative than to enforce the law.

Mr. Garfinkel said he would take this up with Anton, to see that the law was observed. He asked for a couple of weeks, and this time was given.

In the discussion Anton said he had moved from his home, because he wanted to park his car (it seemed) in a business zone overnight, but that other cars were still at the Burt Road home.

Boyle told Anton that he did have the right to go before the Board of Appeals.

Old Ford Site
The firm of Taylor and Lord, of Lexington, wants to take over a part of the old Wilmington Ford place, below Wilmington Square, for the purpose of selling International Trucks.

Attorney Seymour Berman of Hingham appeared before the Selectmen Monday night, with two members of the firm, to explain the proposals.

He was asking, he told the Selectmen, for a First Class and a Second Class license for auto sales but not a Third Class. The firm sells new trucks, and second hand trucks that it takes in trade, but is not interested in selling junk.

There would be 8 or 10 employees. The operation, he said, was a 'family' operation. They are presently located at 202 Cedar St. in Lexington.

Mr Banda wanted to know how many trucks would be involved. He was told by Berman that it would be 'not more than the site would hold' and that it could not be 'overbearing' because of the Gibbs Oil Station. Miceli wanted to know if there was to be construction equipment, and he was told that there was not.

Industrial Bonds
The Board of Selectmen learned all about (well, almost all about) Industrial Bonds, Monday night.

Their mentor was William J. Sugrue, Deputy Commissioner of the Division of Economic Development of the Massachusetts Department of Commerce. Mr. Sugrue was with Dick Tufjenkian of Sweetheart Plastics. Mr. Tufjenkian has the distinction of being the individual who has been most misunderstood by the Board of Selectmen in 1969 - at least so far.

It is now some six or eight weeks since Tufjenkian first appeared before the board, suggesting that the town have an Industrial Finance Authority, to help local industries with their bond costs for new construction. The Selectmen have since then explored every wrong path possible, the last being a suggestion that the money to be raised by the Authority would be spent on the new Sweetheart Plastics plant, to be constructed in New Hampshire.

An Industrial Authority, Sugrue said, has to be authorized by the

New Explorers Post

On October 22, a new Explorers Post was formed, Post 63, sponsored by St Thomas. It received its charter on Wednesday. The Special Interest of the boys is camping on Nov 28, 29, and 30, when they will go camping at the Cape.

Officers of the new post are President, Ralph Decker; First Vice President, Robert Thomas; Treasurer, Dave Deschenes; Secretary, Richard Barry; and a new member, Arthur Gilbert.

The post is open to members from the age of 14 on. All boys are welcomed. The meetings are held at 7:30 on Wednesdays at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

A special thanks to Mr and Mrs Winston, the owners of Andersons Bakery for a cake to the Success of Post 63.

MRS ANNIE GALLAGHER: Retired Postmistress of North Wilmington was the oldest parishioner at the St Thomas Jubilee Banquet, last Saturday. It was her 85th birthday, and she afterwards shared a cake with Father Croke, who has the same birthday.

Mrs Gallagher is at right, at table in foreground. Facing the camera is Miss Bessie McMahon, another long-time parishioner of St. Thomas.

Town Meeting, and from then on it reports to the Board of Selectmen.

The town would own or lease the land on which buildings are to be erected, through the Authority, and sell bonds for the erection which would be tax exempt, on a Federal scale, thus making the interest rate lower. This lower rate, 1% or more, is of considerable importance, Sugrue said, in the competitive market of today.

The bonds would be handled by a bank - which Sugrue called the 'trustee'. The repayment would be the responsibility of the company, but the money to be paid out would be under the control of the Authority.

There would be, he assured the Selectmen, no 'pledging' of the town credit. The firm would have to execute an agreement, before the construction started. If by chance the firm should go defunct it would be up to the Trustee (bank) to find new occupants, and otherwise take care of the financial risks involved.

The original bond issue, in the state, was in 1967, for $11.7 millions for RCA, and there was a later one for $10 millions for Stop & Shop, but today the trend is away from the larger bond sales, and towards bond sales of $1 million or thereabouts.

The local Authority has a State Industrial Finance Board, which checks over the proposals, and has 20 days to approve or disapprove. If approved the State issues a Certificate of Necessity, which can take from 5 weeks to three months.

The taxes on the new buildings are paid to the town, and to the state, just as if the building were owned by the company involved. The local authority would check the site, and make periodic inspections, and would be made up entirely of town residents, five in number, who would serve without pay.

One of the questions was as to who would buy the land - and Sugrue told the Selectmen that this could all be taken care of in the Bond issue. He gave the Selectmen copies of the law, and apologized because, he said, it was not 'very sexy reading'.

Other Business

Drawn for the Jury Pool in Cambridge, starting on Dec. 1 were Louis A. Dindo of Roberts Road and Thomas F. Whittaker of Lake Street. George W. Justice, 65 Chestnut St. was drawn for Jury service in Lowell, starting on the same date.

An Epilepsy Week proclamation was signed, in company of Co-chairmen Ernest DiGirolamo, the Grand Knight of the KofC, and Leonard Boyden of 106 Nichols St. president of St. Dorothy's Holy Name Society.

There is to be a public meeting of education, about epilepsy, on Nov. 5 at 8 pm in the K or C Hall.

Ventura Canelas of MacDonald Road is to be re-imburshed $25 each, for seven pigs, killed by dogs. The Selectmen so voted after Mr. Banda had read a report from the dog officer, Joe Balestrieri.

A letter from the MBTA about signs, indicating the direction to the railroad station, was tabled after Boylen asked that it be clarified.

Boylen's point was that the signs were to be put up on Route 93, and elsewhere, pointing to the railroad station, and Wilmington has to pay for the MBTA deficit in proportion to the number of persons who board the trains in Wilmington.

Banda came up with the thought that the assessments are now beginning to cost the town $108,000 a year. The selectmen 'tabled' the letter until the chairman receives a reply from one he is to write - the reply coming 'hopefully in 20 years!'

Cain's Gas License

The Selectmen voted to have the Town Counsel attend the next meeting for the purpose of discussing the gasoline license of Fred F. Cain for a site which is across Main St. from his garage, and on which Mr. Cain intends to build a car-wash, shortly.

The discussion was instigated by Miceli. He told the Selectmen he had had the license 'researched' and found out that it was originally issued in 1940, for 580 Main Street, and that in 1965, on Sept. 27, he (Cain) had had a public hearing, after which the license was transferred across the street. It is now over three years since the license was used, Miceli said, and although Cain has paid the license fee every year he, Miceli, was of the opinion that the license falls into the category of licenses not used for three years, and that it should be rescinded. Miceli said that the car wash equipment was there on the site, and there were plans for a gas station, and he wanted to start proceedings for the revocation of the gas license.

Boylen thought they should invite Cain in, for the discussion with the Town Counsel, and Miceli agreed.

Banda thought that the question should be resolved among themselves (the Selectmen) first, and the vote was in favor of the Town Counsel being asked to attend the next meeting. Mrs. Drew abstained.

The Selectmen were invited to participate in the exercises on the Common at 10:30 am Nov. 11, Veterans Day. Boylen wanted to know if 'it was one of those holidays the state fiddled around with' and he was assured that it wasn't.

New licenses for taxi drivers were shown to the Selectmen, these with pictures of the drivers on the face of the license.

New Business

Mrs. Drew said she was receiving reports that the woodland areas of Wilmington were becoming full of junk equipment (refrigerators, etc) since a charge was being made at the Town Dump by Mr. Spinazola for such items.

Miceli asked for lights on Ferguson Road, and about a 'patch' in front of the home of Ernest Crispo, of Hopkins Street, where there was property flooding. The TM said it was all done.

The Selectmen proclaimed the month of November as Wilmington Crusader - Swordsmen month, in honor of the youngsters who won the Mayflower Circuit Championship, in Drum & Bugle Corps.

The board then went into an executive session.

Nosey Nancy

Send your announcements to Nancy, Box 208, Wilmington, or call 657-7141, and after five, 658-4865. If I'm not there, then I'll call you!

Hey, you Gals, the cards this week: Dapper Harold McKelvey is in St John's Hospital in Lowell for two or three weeks.

Mary Gray of 120 Eames Street has returned from the hospital but will be confined to the home, as she must use a walker. She would like to see any or all of you, or talk with you on the phone, or get a card or two...She was 83 in March! Thatta gal there Mary...Keep up the good work!

Al Gagnon of Sprucewood Road is in St John's Hospital in Lowell for a checkup...

Pearl Hersom of Woburn St is confined at Winchester Hospital for the same reason...checkup!

And Gals, your cards to Ken Preble of Temple Street who is very ill at the Choate Hospital in Woburn and would enjoy your cards!

Don't forget that Bobby Orr Night by the CYO of St Thomas for the benefit of the Landers Fund. R's on Vets Day, Nov 11 at 7:30. The donation is $2.00 and you can get your ticket from any CYO kid or the high school athletes! That's a worthwhile taken in with a worthwhile cause So, let's go there folks!

That Spanish Speaking Padre showed up at the Methodist Church Sunday, back from Chile, and he looked great. We certainly enjoyed his resume of the sojourn. We can certainly say he has imagination also. In case some of you are unaware of it, that Reverend is also a Master Magician, so when the government refused to let him preach as such, he just asked innocently if they would get together for a magic show. This they were pleased with...Little did they know that they were going to get the religion anyway...Willis is very adept at Magic with a Message...Understand that he'll be looking for some do-re-mi to send some packets to magicians down there, who learned from him some of these tricks. They have a hard time getting their wherewithal since their money is frozen and can't go out of the country....So we'll see about that project!

It was good to see Joe Balesrieri Jr having his small fry baptized before he left for Vietnam, his next stop.

Don't forget those chores--yard storm windows, washing paint--the Mid-High MYFers are having that Work-Bee until Nov 23, so call Ken Hall at 667-3707, or Dave Tuxbury at 658-5465, or the church at 658-4519 and order your slaves. Donation is for the MYF Retreat Fund.

Those Mid-Highers are on the Ball - a White Elephant Table at the Fairless Fair at the Church on December 5th, so call Jean at 658-5465 and have your stuff picked up, or drop it off at the Methodist Church office. Thanks!

Did you REMEMBER? FISH, that is...Fish needs more people to volunteer for phone duty on weekends....Call 657-7778! There were a few chicks, that called me for volunteering this week....That is the way, there kids...You're my GROUP!

If you are a member of the VFW, they want YOU for Veterans Day Parade and Exercises on November 11th. Get on your bib and tucker...or tunic or whatever you fit, and hie yourself down to the VFW Hall at 8:30 am... That parade promises to be a good one...Hear the Green Berets are coming!

Those Hadassah members are having an open meeting on Nov 5 at 8 pm at the Presbyterian Church on Cambridge St in Burlington. There'll be a Stanley demonstration for the benefit of the Youth Aliyah, which is the youth immigration into Israel. They have already helped to resettle and habilitate 135,000 kids from 80 lands in Israel...Sounds like a good thing. So if you don't have everything you need, with the exception of the brooms, towels, and light bulbs, you are buying from Big Joe App and those roaring Lions...call one of these chicks and find out about the Stanley party...Mrs Alan Greenstein of Wilmington or Mrs Leslie Clark of Burlington!

Want a chuckle?

This gal cannot vouch that the story is true, but it's worth telling! Ever since Lac Barbo started the Wilmington Industrial Park some of the town officials of North Reading have been doing a slow burn - and perhaps with good reason.

Fordham Road, which goes thru the industrial park, is mostly in Wilmington, but the entrance is in North Reading. The buildings are all in Wilmington - at least to this writing.

So the North Reading officials say, with some reason, that Wilmington gets the tax money, and North Reading gets the traffic. A small amount of taxes goes to North Reading, but it isn't much.

Monday morning, so the story goes, someone called one of the officials of North Reading and suggested that the town should send down a dozen cops, because of the General Electric picket line.

'What?', was the answer - 'A dozen cops for $135.36 in taxes!'

Car Wash for the American Field Service Exchange Student Program at the High School from 8:30 to noon on Nov first. Rain date is Nov 2nd from 10 to 2. So hie yourself and the family buggy down to the parking spot at the HS while the little lady is shopping and get a going over...and take $5 for your contribution too, if you haven't made that yet...or mail it to Carl Vayo of 36 Boutwell St, but do them both this week!

Nellie called and Mary Biggar caught us some yarn this week for the afghans...BUT we still don't have enough! We have started a new project....The Twksbury State Hospital...near you and your loved ones...if you don't know someone

James P Donahue, Sr., Chairman of the Wilmington Housing Authority, died at the Choate Memorial Hospital in Woburn last Saturday. Mr Donahue had been stricken with a heart attack, at his home, and was rushed to the hospital.

An eleven year member of the Housing Authority, he was at work on plans for another Old Age Project for Wilmington at the time of his death. He was also a member of the Wilmington Town Democratic Committee, and the Tewksbury-Wilmington Lodge of Elks.

51 years old, a native of Medford, he had been a resident of Cypress Street for the past 20 years. He was a veteran, having served in both World War II and the Korean War with the US Army, and was a member of the William Tattersall Chapter 106, Disabled American Veterans.

He had been employed for many years by the MBTA, and at the time of his death filled the position of Safety Supervisor.

Beside his wife, Christine W. (Strickland) Donahue, he is survived by two children, James P. Jr., of North Woodstock, NH, and Patrick, serving in the US Army in Tennessee. There are two sisters, Miss Eleanor Donahue of Medford, and Mrs Margaret Mullin of Ireland.

The funeral was from the W S Cavanaugh & Son Funeral Home, 374 Main Street on October 28th, followed by a High Mass of Requiem at St. Dorothy's Church at 9:15 am, celebrated by the Rev. Father Lawrence Drennan, with Brother Dominic serving as Deacon. Burial was in the family lot in Riverside Cemetery, Lincoln NH. Pall bearers were Town Manager Sterling Morris, John Riley, Noah Denault and Kenneth Richardson.

Birth

DEEGAN, Sean Patrick, third son, born to Mr and Mrs Joseph B (Tuttle) Deegan of 80 Swain Rd on October 23 at Winchester Hospital.

Grandparents are Mr and Mrs Frank H Tuttle of Two Carson Ave and Mrs Marie R Malone of 135 Church Street, and Mr Joseph B Deegan of Somerville. Great Grandparents are Mr and Mrs Louis Brisbois of Somerville

Where the VW 'Bugs' Come From

For years, in the world of automobiles, when one used the word 'bug' he was referring to an unknown fault in a car - probably in the motor. Gas stations had signs (and still do) saying ineffectually 'Bug Hunting - $2.50' or something like that.

Then, after World War II, there was a new meaning to the word. A bug was a Volkswagen, that ubiquitous little car that was seen everywhere, in the USA, and in the world too. In the last dozen years second car dealers use the word almost indiscriminately in their advertisements - '67 Bug' means a 1967 Volkswagen.

Wilmington, in the past year, has become the home office for Volkswagen Northeastern Distributor, Inc., an organization which distributes the Bugs to the dealers of all the New England States except Connecticut.

Saturday morning the new plant is to be formally dedicated. Some 500 to 700 people in the automotive world will be present, plus others including state and town officials. It will be a grand day for Volkswagen Northeastern.

The Source

Last summer the publisher of the Town Crier had the pleasure of visiting the parent organization of Volkswagen of America, of which Volkswagen Northeastern is a part. The parent organization, of course, is Volkswagen, in Wolfsburg, Germany - the largest automobile plant in the world.

The host for a tour of the plant was Rudi Maletz, a public relations man for Volkswagen, whose knowledge of the English language was just as good, if not better, than that of the fourteen American publishers who were his guests. Rudi would be welcome anywhere, and almost anytime, where a party was in progress and English was the language being used.

Volkswagen is a huge plant, still growing, only five miles from the East German frontier, and located beside the Mittelland Canal, by which comes the oil and coal barges which supply the fuel to power the plant.

Canals are to be found everywhere in Germany, and to the publishers, as they approached the plant, it was just another canal.

It was just another canal, but it also was the dividing line between the City of Wolfsburg and the VW plant.

The bus approached the VW plant from the West, so that the first thing to be seen was the power plant - four huge smokestacks rising up into the air.

The power plant passed, the bus continued on for a mile - One Mile - until it came to the main gate. That gives an idea of the size of this, the largest automobile manufacture in the world.

No cars were to be seen - just office buildings, plant, and green lawns. It took a couple of minutes for the fact that there were no cars parked in front of the offices to sink in, - imagine an American office building, of a car manufacturer, with no cars parked in front of it!

It was only after the plant had been toured, with Rudi, and the publishers were having lunch that they found out why.

Everybody parks his car on the north side of the canal - the city side, and uses one of the two huge escalators, which go under the canal, to go to work. Eight men can stand abreast, as they go under the canal and to their appointed place of employment, not wearing themselves out by walking, but by waiting as the escalator takes them there!

The great god automobile doesn't litter up the landscape at the huge VW plant. Instead there are green lawns, and trees!

What does one say of the interior of a huge auto plant? Overhead conveyors bring parts, the parts are assembled, and finally there are eight conveyors which bring the finished product to the testing station, where for a few minutes each Volkswagen is subjected to a wrenching, wracking test that detects loose wires or parts as it tests the speedometers and other gauges, all in one operation.

Then out - to railroad cars, and to the port of Hamburg, where specially built ships take the Bugs to all parts of the world.

The Employees

There are 65,000 employees at Volkswagen, mostly divided into two shifts. One fifth of these are Italians.

There are several million men employed in Germany from other countries - Italy, Spain, Turkey, even Algeria. This is, of course, because of the labor shortage, and also because the German Government has an attractive social policy that allows people to come into the country and work, at the same level as the native Germans.

Italy, of course, is a part of the European Economic Community, as is Germany, France, Belgium, etc. Any national of any of the countries can go to another, without even having his passport stamped, and be employed there, with no trouble whatsoever.

He will get the same social security in any of the countries that the natives do, and this is most pronounced in Germany.

The Italians employed at the VW plant have their social security payments credited to them in their accounts at home. Direct payments are made to the families at home. There is a liberal vacation policy. Germany needs help, i.e. employees, and the German Volkswagen people directly encourage Italian employees to work for them.

This leads to the curious (to a visitor) fact that signs in the plant at Wolfsburg and in two languages, German, and Italian.

Socially the Italians are well accepted. They experience no difficulties.

But the VW plant has another feature which is worthy of comment.

No VW 'Clubs'

Anywhere a traveler goes in the United States, if he searches, he can find Bowling Clubs, and other sports organizations, and social organizations too, which are being 'sponsored' by employer groups.

Right here in Wilmington are Bowling Clubs, in which the various teams wear jackets or shirts with the name of a store or other commercial firm on them. The Town Crier, for instance, sponsors one Bowling Team.

Not that any employee of the Town Crier is on that team - no sir. It just has the privilege of paying a small sum of money, and having its name appear on those shirts. It is a part of the American way of life.

But there are no Bowling Clubs, or any other clubs in Wolfsburg, or anywhere else in Germany, with a VW on a shirt or jacket.

Volkswagen just doesn't do that sort of thing!

'When a man leaves this plant, his day's work finished, he has had enough of Volkswagen' Rudi told the American publishers. 'We don't want people taking part in their recreational sports being reminded that they work for us'.

Volkswagen gives liberally to the City of Wolfsburg for its municipal needs - a contribution to the cost of the Opera House, for instance, but not to any 'private' social club. Perhaps some of the American employers might be envious of such a situation!

The power that is used in Wolfsburg, for electric lights, etc., comes from the VW power plant. That, of course, is a substantial contribution which is felt by every homeowner in the city. Just imagine if the Avco plant in Wilmington were to supply the power for all the homes of Wilmington!

In addition to being a charming and witty host, both during the tour and at dinner (one of the delicacies being German asparagus, of which the writer was particularly fond) Rudi Maletz gave the visiting publishers a view into the future.

Volkswagen he said (it started October 1) is expanding into other fields than the manufacture of the little car.

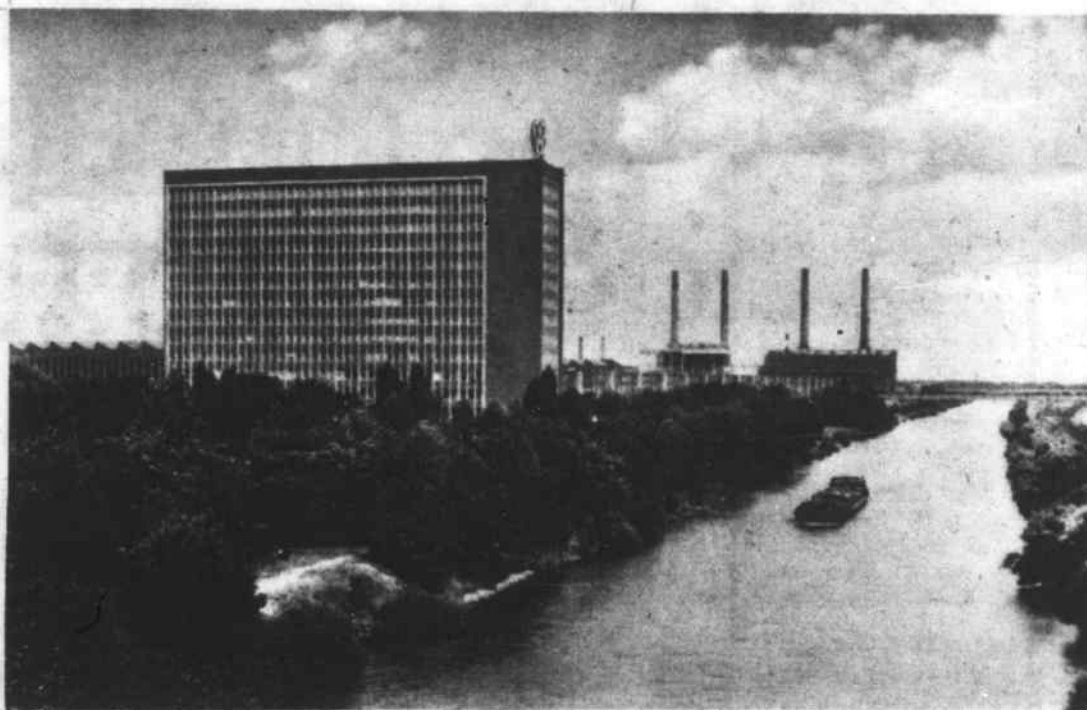

It was to become (and has) the exporter of the Porsche sports car, also made in Germany, and of the Audi luxury-type car. A net work of dealers was being planned for the United States, and the Volkswagen distribution system would then become the VW - Porsche - Audi distribution system.

That mention of Audi made a hit with the American visitors, who had been carrying around a mental picture of VW executives, loyal to their firm, driving only the little 'bug'. Now, still loyal to the firm, the executives could drive up in a big car, an Audi, just as, for instance, a Chrysler executive does not necessarily have to drive a Plymouth.

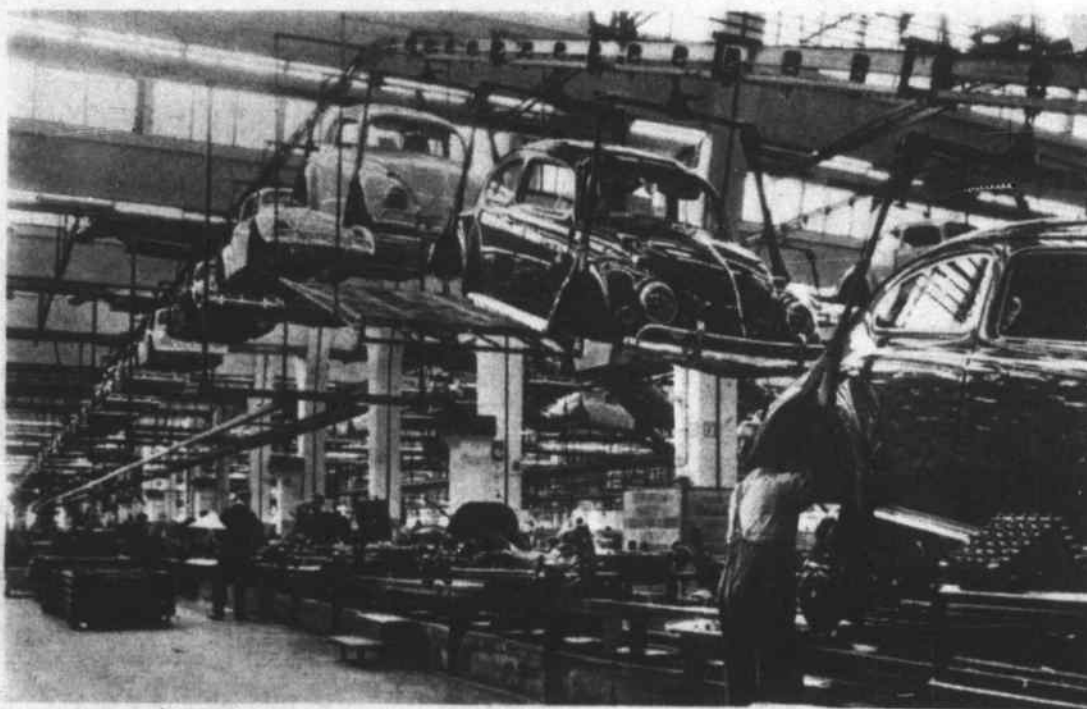

Rudi agreed, affably, that such would probably be the case.

THE VOLKSWAGEN OFFICE BUILDING: Another view, showing a self-propelled barge on the Mittelland Canal, and the power plant in the background.

AFTER ASSEMBLY AND TESTING: The 'bugs' leave the VW plant for the railroad yard.

LOADED ON FREIGHT CARS: They head for Hamburg, the port from whence they go to all parts of the world.

PAUL WOLFF STUDIES MUSIC IN BOSTON

The Berklee School of Music in Boston and the International College for the study of Modern American Music, has accepted Paul C Wolff, age 14, the son of Mr and Mrs Ronald Wolff at 584 Woburn Street as a student on the electric bass in its Division of Private Study.

Paul is a 9th grade student in the Wilmington Schools.

In the 1860's the wonderful work of Florence Nightingale had barely gotten under way. Among the women who before that time acted as nurses there must have been some good ones. But they were probably in the minority.

It was essential that a nurse have good health, good morals; nor should she be younger than 30 or older than 50.

Before 30, she might not possess that firmness of character so necessary in a nurse; while after 50 she will have neither the strength of body nor equanimity of temper that a nurse must have.

And most important of all a nurse must not be hard of hearing lest she fail to hear the patient's requests or misunderstand a physician's directions.

The nurse has many duties as does the pharmacist. Complete prescription service awaits you at SILVER LAKE PHARMACY, 52 Main St. Call 658-4617. Open 9-10 EVERY day. Whitman & Candy Cupboard Candy. Cosmetics. Cards.

Mrs. Francis J. Sarica

At an eleven o'clock ceremony on May 17, 1969, at the Basilica of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Maureen A Bogan, the daughter of Mr and Mrs Charles Bogan of 42 Hichborn Street in Brighton became the bride of Francis J Sarica, the son of Mr and Mrs Carl C Sarica of 14 Clark St in Wilmington.

After a wedding trip to New Hampshire, the couple is now at home at 27 Brock Street in Brighton.

The Bride attended the Boston Business School, while the groom attended the Wilmington Public Schools and the Franklin Institute in Boston.

Pop Warner Flag Football

In one of the most exciting games of the year, the undefeated Mad Dogs came from behind in the second half and beat the stubborn Wildcats 9-7. The Wildcats have yet to win, but halfway thru the second half, they held a 7-0 lead, thanks to Mike Tower's touch down and extra point.

Here, the big play turned the game around. Forced to kick on fourth down, Ned Welch of the Mad Dogs punted into the end zone. Mike Tower of the Wildcats, in his anxiety to make a long return, picked up the ball and stepped out of the end zone for an automatic safety. This gave the Mad Dogs two points plus the ball on a free kick. Two plays later they had the winning touchdown. Dave Rounds swept left end for the score, made the extra point himself and the Mad Dogs were home 9-7.

The first game of the evening saw the once beaten Hacker swamp the Chargers 30-7. Dave Maloney scored 18 points for the second week in a row and Rich Zwahlen scored the other 12. Chris Rounds threw four touchdown passes, giving him nine in three games. For the Chargers, Mike Sughrue scored all 7 points on passes from Steve Callahan.

At the halfway point in the season, the standings are: Mad Dogs 3-0, Hackers 2-1, Chargers 1-2, Wildcats 0-3.

This Saturday, the Mad Dogs collide with the Hackers at 6 pm in a battle for first place. The ever-improving Wildcats take on the Chargers at 7 pm.

More Nancy

there now, you will! SO, we need the bright colors...Take your buck or two to the COLONIAL Yarn Shop at the Lake this week...There is a sale...just for you...and let us have those reds, blues, or yellows...Come on now...and you're not hearing the end of this yet...cause we are going to cook up something to do for those folk up there at Tewksbury this here Christmas...because so many folk have told this Gal about the FORGOTTEN Ones there, it would seem that we should be able to do something about that! Let's get off our you-know-whats now...That's the way....YARN FIRST!

Heard that the Peter Orlandos of Emerson Road celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary last week and their kids gave them a great party at the K of C Hall after a Miss at St Dorothys.

It would seem that the grand kids spent six months making the decorations, and the bridesmaid was there...the best man is still living, but he couldn't make it. The Orlandos were married in Fitchburg that long ago...in fact this chick was just seeing the light of day...They had many gifts and the wedding picture was there and they were certainly pleased with the doings...However, I want to have you all know this...This Gal was there when this wonderful couple pledged $50 of those gifts to the Regional Hospital Fund isn't that something...Wonder if the rest of us try hard enough!

On November 15th, the Sons of Italy are holding a Dinner Dance at the K of C Hall in Tewksbury at 6:30 pm in honor of the Grand Venerable Aldo Calra...If you have your ticket, fine; if you haven't, call 658-8426 or 657-7345!

And the Christmas Bazaar for the Sons of Italy will be held at the Legion Hall on November 22nd from 9 to 6pm...Terry tells me! There will be glass blowing, home made afghans and other knits, a Cheer Table, a Christmas Table, an Apron Table, a Stuffed Animal Table, a Baked Goods Table and Best Line Soaps, Candy Table, Parent's Gifts from the Children Table, White Elephant Table, and the Snack Bar will be open all day....and you know how those dolls can cook! So, get the kid's piggy banks, and come down with them, so they can do your shopping, and you can have a goodie or two while they are doing it, plus pick up their mittens that you didn't have time to make anyway, and the yarn for which you are giving to Nellie...RIGHT? That's a good one now!

The Wilmingtonians are either richer, lazier, or smarter this year...Haven't made up my mind which. Steve Berecz sold over 100 snowblowers during October. However, he's not sold out, nor does he want you to shovel.... there are some there, with more on the way, so there you go!

Eleanor Ferguson, the owner of Beautirama is doing her good deed next Monday. She has loaned her Beautirama Shop on the corner of Lowell and Woburn Sts in Lucet's Corner to the Kiwanis Ladies for the benefit of the Scholarship Fund for a Wig and Cosmetic Demonstration - the Cosmetics being Holiday Magic. This will be on Monday from 6 to 9 with the donation being $1.00, and you are supposed to come and bring your friends... (Wonder how this kid can get out of the Selectmen's Meeting)...Course Mrs Joseph says the same thing as Terry Fortunata does about those cosmetics...wouldn't have anything else, and they both have such lovely skins...So get down there Gals and see the sights!

This Chick wants to extend her personal thanks to the George Grays of Clark St and the Fortunatas of Church Street for the fine time she had in their company on Saturday evening last!

And this week, our system has all gone to you know where... The upper echelon of the Clan is in Wilmington...There's a power failure on the Island, so the grocery bill is double and the house looks like who-dun-it and ran... But we love them anyway...but we wisht we da known...and we'd had them paint the house or sumpini!

Then there's somethin else that happened to us this week that is really fun...One of the teachers who we count very much among our friends sent another teacher show we now also count among our friends to us to find a home! In the course of events, we find he has taught three of the Clan with one in his room presently, and not only that, his grandfather was a friend of this Chick's father and his aunts and uncles and father went to school with older - you got that, older I said brothers and sisters to this Chick at good ole Medford High - so we feel as though we have known him all of his life - fact, if we had lived closer, might have baby sat for him - guess that is dating us! (We told you about that gal that looked at us with the jaw sagging at the Depot...When I asked the problem, she said,-- "I thought you were a lot lot-- younger than you are!")

What about that Mike Sughrue of Floradale Ave with his seven points for the Pop Warner Flag Chargers this week....In case you folks haven't noticed that large large version of Mike standing on the sidelines...that is his Pere Don, who played tackle for BC in his before-pro days...and are those two ever look-alikes...Congratulations to you both, Mike and Don! Looks like the kid has it, huh Don?

Some people like the quite rough texture of plaster walls and some can't quite get used to them.

They may be pretty and all that but to many it proves to be a dust catcher.

They can be painted. With a sander, grind off all the peaks. Fill in the valleys by smoothing Spackle of plaster over the walls. When all is smooth to your satisfaction, paint away.

No sizing needed if you use latex paint; only with oilbase paint. Now your walls will be more to your liking and you'll enjoy living with them!

Wildcats in First Place

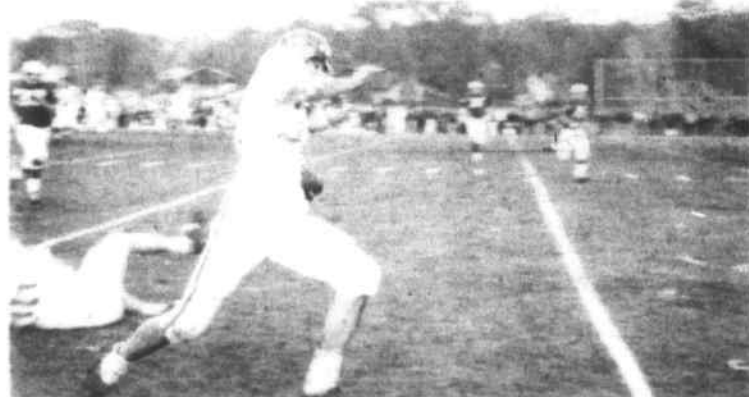

The Wilmington Wildcats moved into undisputed possession of first place in the Merrimack Valley conference last Saturday, with a decisive 32-7 win over Burlington. The Red Devil's highly regarded defense fell apart as Quarterback Bill Gustus directed the Wildcats to their fourth victory of the season.

Gustus threw three touchdown for the afternoon.

Again, as in the past ball games, the defensive line, led by Co-Capt Tom Coates, tackled George Anderson and End Alan Heim stopped the Red Devils from putting together any sustained drive worthy of note.

The Freshmen won their fifth in a row with a 34-0 rout of Burlington last Friday afternoon.

MIKE ESPOSITO ON THE WAY: To the second touchdown, having shaken himself clear of the Burlington tacklers.

passes and a conversion, and scored on a one yard plunge, in playing one of his best games as a varsity player.

In other games Dracut remained tied for second place with Andover and Tewksbury, with a 27-6 rout of Billerica. Andover defeated Tewksbury 20-8, and Methuen held on to an early lead for a 28-20 victory over winless North Andover.

Burlington started the game by recovering an onside kick at the Wildcat 22, and proceeded to drive to the six yard line, where the Wilmington defense held, and the offense took over.

They marched up the field on running plays by Esposito, Gillis and Smallidge. In the sustained drive of 94 yards in 17 plays, Esposito carried the ball nine times for 43 yards, Gillis ran the ball three times for 10 yards and Smallidge, showing to his best ability of the season, carried the pigskin for 18 yards in four carries.

The final play of the drive was a 12 yard sweep by Espo to make the score 6-0 at the 13 second mark in the second quarter. The point after attempt was blocked.

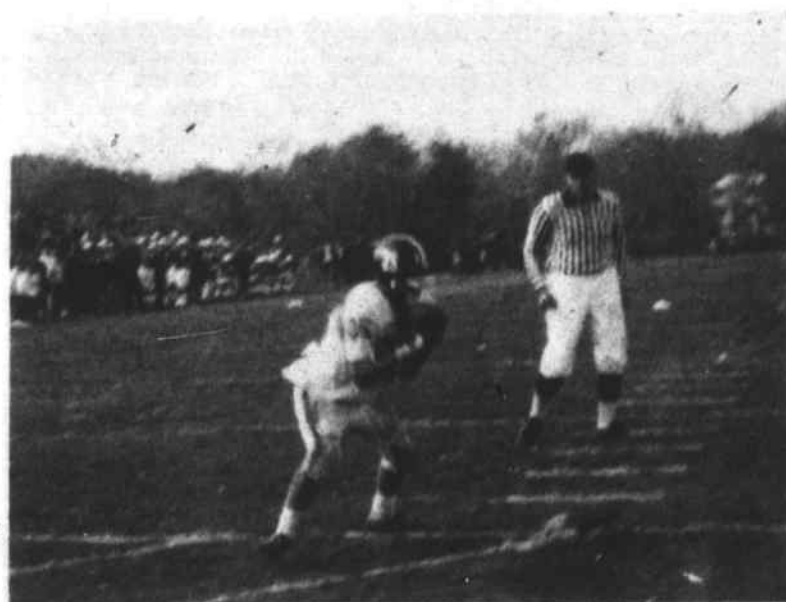

Burlington was unable to move the ball with any consistency following the kickoff, and the Wildcats took over on downs on their own 38 yard line, but were stalled by the Red Devils at the 21, after nine plays and a Burlington penalty had put them in an excellent field position.

The Wildcats next scoring opportunity came on a Red Devil miscue. Burlington had moved the ball from their 21 to the 34 before Mitchell fumbled and senior Linesman John McNevin recovered the ball on the 28.

On the very next play Gustus flipped a swing pass to Esposito who streaked down the sideline into the end zone untouched, for the second touchdown of the afternoon. Espo's pat was kicked wide of the goal posts.

Late in the period Steve Auth of Burlington went over from the four, to make the score 12-7, but the Wildcats scored three times in the final quarter to ice the verdict. Gustus accounted for all three touchdowns, throwing scoring passes of 15 yards to senior End Alan Heim, and 63 yards to Esposito, and diving over from the one for another score.

The last two scores were preceded by fumble recoveries. Junior Halfback Dick Gillis recovered a Mitchell fumble at the Red Devil 16, and five plays later Gustus sneaked over for a TD; and senior Defensive Back Mark Dragan recovered another Red Devil miscue at the Wildcat 23, and on the first play Gustus fired a long bomb to Esposito, to close out the scoring

ALL BY HIS LONSIES: Dick Gillis receives the PAT pass which made Wilmington's score 20.

Paced by Mark Jepson's three TD's, which included runs of 91, 60 and 40 yards, the younger Wildcats moved almost at will.

The other scores were made by the two quarterbacks. Starting QB Steve Coursey netted the second score early in the third period, with a five yard dive into the end zone, and reserve QB Rick Howlett ran 47 yards on a quarterback sneak with seconds left in the game to score the final TD.

Tomorrow the boys travel to Chelmsford, to look for No. 6.

In what was probably one of the hardest hitting jayvee games of the year, the Red Devils of Burlington held Coach Gillis's squad to a scoreless tie, Monday afternoon, under cold and cloudy skies. The Jayvees now sport a 2-1-2 record for the season.

High School Soccer in Win Column

The varsity team was victorious for the first time this year last week, as they shut out North Andover 3-0, and the previously undefeated Andover team 2-0.

In Tuesday's game against the Scarlet Knights they produced the initial team victory in this, the first year of competition. Goals were scored by co-capt. John Kalkanajian at 11:01 of the third period, with an assist by junior Right Wing Harry Latta, and two more goals were scored in the final period by senior Center Forward Bill Coale on a penalty kick at 16:00, and an earlier one at 8:11 by junior Center Forward Lance Platt, who booted home his first goal of the year, also on a penalty kick. The Wildcats our shot No. Andover 29-7 as senior Goalie Frank Leverone had a relatively quiet afternoon.

Playing an inspired defensive game on Thursday, the Wildcats proved to be the better team as they upset the Golden Warriors. Again the outstanding play of goalie Frank Leverone, and Fullbacks Walter Carney and Mark Winchell foiled many Andover drives. The Wildcats maintained a slight edge in the shots on net as they outshot the Warriors 16-15.

The two goals were netted by sophomore Right Wing Frank Simmons at 13:00 of the second stanza with assists going to Bob Materese and Jason Platt, and by Bill Coale at 9:06 of the third period assisted by John Kalkanajian.

The boys played Woburn this past Tuesday, and entertain North Andover this afternoon at the North Intermediate School, with kick-off listed at 3:15 pm.

Hustle, determination and desire by the entire squad have produced two victories, and things are looking up for Coach Lentine's eleven.

Pop Warner Chargers back on Winning Track

The Pop Warner 'A' Chargers bounced back, Sunday, to defeat a visiting Burlington team at the High School field, before a large delighted crowd of spectators.

The team wasted no time in hitting the comeback trail. They had possession of the ball for almost the entire first period, driving continuously down field. Styles broke loose for the first touchdown and Dunn converted, to make the score 8-0 at the end of the period.

In the second, Bavota, playing his first backfield assignment, scampered down the field for 55 yards, for another score, and with Styles making the conversion the score was 16-0.

Burlington suddenly came alive and scored two quick touchdowns, missing one conversion along the way, to make it 16-14 in favor of Wilmington at the half.

Bavota tallied another, on a 53 yard run, in the third, and in the fourth period Dunn uncorked a 36 yard pass, for a score, to give Wilmington a 30-14 lead, as Styles made the conversion.

In the waning minutes of the game Burlington scored again, on a series of downs, but it wasn't enough. The Chargers came out on top, 30-20.

The win puts Wilmington in the position of still fighting for the Championship. Next week's game is to be at the same place, Sunday, at 1 pm at the High School.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS PROBATE COURT

Cross Country Upsets Tewksbury

In an amazing performance on October 22nd, the Wilmington varsity Cross Country team upset a Tewksbury team that had previously lost only once.

The rain, snow and hail did not stop the Wildcat runners from scoring a decisive 32-25 victory. After the Redmen had taken the first two places, Jim Lynch, Lance Walden, Rick Russell, Rick Keane and Cliff Friberg took places 3 through 7, and Wes Bacon ran 9th in the best team effort of the year.

Saturday the team was in competition against 24 other teams in division 4 of the State class meet. Another excellent team effort led the varsity to a Seventh Place finish. Walden (36), Keane (39), Russell (42), Friberg (49) and Lynch (65) were the Wildcat scorers.

Yesterday the varsity team concluded the season in the conference meet at Andover.

Field Hockey

On October 21 North Andover, with a shot with a lot of luck in it, by the Left Inner, scored early in the game, and made it stand up as the Wilmington varsity lost its first league game. Team effort defensively, which has been improving all year, has kept the opposition during league play to only four goals.

On a very cold afternoon last Thursday, at Burlington, the girls took a 1-0 lead in the first half, on a goal by senior Center Forward Joan Cushing.

In the second half the snow flurries fell, and so did the Wildcat's goal line. It fell to a goal by a Burlington Center Forward, for the (believe it or not) fifth tie of the season for the Wildcat eleven.

The Jayvees lost their fifth game in succession, 3-1.

The statistics show much improvement defensively, and credit goes to the fine work of Halfbacks Mary Harrison, Joan Cushing and Nancy Olson, and Fullbacks Linda Bridges, Sue Brown and Dottie Castaldo. Goalie Joyce McMillan has been persistent in her goal keeping, but has not had too many chances to make saves of late, as the opponents have not crossed the striking circle too many times in the last four games.

The team attack is showing much improvement in the individual skills, but the scoring punch has not been centered on the goal area. But the girls have outshot the opposition. Two young freshmen who show a lot of promise, and who have turned in good performances are Joan Bellissimo and Sandi McNevin.

The varsity is now 1-4-5 overall, and 1-1-5 in league play. The girls played Andover Tuesday, and will conclude their season next Tuesday at home, with a non-league game with Bedford.

ADULT BASKETBALL

The correct starting date for the Adult Basketball is Nov. 5th at 7 pm in the High School gym.

Several new players have expressed desires to play this year. All who want to take part should be in the High School gym on Wednesday evening. There is to be practice every Wednesday during November, and regular play will start in December.

THE GENERAL ELECTRIC PICKET LINE. The three new General Electric buildings, on Fordham Road, were among those struck by the employees of that company, Monday morning, but the picketing was carried on in North Reading, as it has to be on a public highway, and Fordham Road is not yet an accepted Street. The picketing was at the back entrance of the GE plant. Carrying the sign is Grant Newman of Middleton. Behind him is Margy Stacy of Saugus, and Winnie Green of Lynn.

Ray Wilson of Marcus Road (wearing white tag) is the picket captain, and voiced a hope that there would be no violence. Behind him is Peter Beaton of Lynn.

The new GE plant has about 300 employees, and a few more are employed at the GE appliance repair shop in the Gardner Building.

New Programs at YMCA

There will be a Rapid Reading Course offered to begin next Tuesday at 7:30 pm at the Reading Community Center. The classes will meet Tuesday evenings from 7:30 to 9:30 pm for ten weeks. Emphasis will be on developing reading skills with comprehension. Class work will be supplemented by home assignments. Course is designed for high school and adults. Mr. Joseph Glionna Jr. is the instructor. He is certified by the State in the Remedial Reading field and on the staff of the Gordon College Reading Clinic.

At the Wakefield Y Pool on Tuesdays from 7 to 8 pm with lecture time on every other Thursday from 7 to 8 at the Community Center, 52 Sanborn St. In Reading, the Y will offer a Junior and Senior Coed Life Saving Class. Added information may be had by calling the Reading YMCA weekdays from 9 to 4 pm 944-1032.

FORMER MISS MASSACHUSETTS AT SHAMROCK THIS SATURDAY!

'Miss Costa Do Sol' (Bea Duprey Allen), former Miss Massachusetts in the Miss World contest, will be appearing in the Wilmington SHAMROCK LIQUOR STOAR, at the Wilmington Plaza, this Saturday between 3 and 6 p.m., sponsored by COSTA DO SOL, the new, exotic, Portuguese Rose wine, used in the White House at the inaugural of President Nixon.

This magnificent wine, which has a slight sparkle and compares favorably with other Portuguese Rose's that are bottled in the smaller 4/5 quart size, is produced in the big, full-quart decanter. Miss COSTA DO SOL will discuss her famous wine and she will be pleased to answer all questions during her 3-hour appearance at the SHAMROCK.
